The sol Project is the first solo exhibition for up and coming NXT GEN Artist Nomthi Mkhwebu. Having grown up in the Territory, most of her young days were spent exploring with family and friends. The beaches, rivers, gorges, the outback.

She wanted her first piece to capture those memories. "The sol project", built under the expertise of Mark Graff, is an ever growing collection introducing its first piece. "The sol Table". This single piece exhibition features art work by Indigenous artist Leigh Fawlstone. The Sol, is built tough but beautiful. Elevated by rebar steel springs, the piece is a contrast of strength and delicacy.
